

Aluminized sleeves offer excellent protection from radiant heat and molten metal splash for the arm. A variety of fabrics and designs are available.

- 12", 18", 24" other lengths available
- Standard sleeves come with snap wrist
- Kevlar® or Elastic (top and wrist) closure available
- FR Velcro® upper arm cinch available

FR Wool Coats are an affordable option offering thermal protection in cold weather and offers moderate protection of molten splash.

- 32 oz. Melton Wool
 - Covered snap closure (FR Velcro® avail.)
 - Optional lengths available
- (26 oz. Zirpro® wool available for molten aluminum protection)

Our Aluminized cape sleeves offer excellent protection from molten metal splash & radiant heat. The optional and detachable 18" long bib extends the life of the garment, plus making replacement in the heavy wear area of the chest economical. Popular for heavy welding or lancing.

- Optional fabrics and bib lengths available.

AMERICAN
SAFETY CLOTHING, INC.

800-827-1204

A variety of Nomex®, Lenzing, Kevlar® and PBI® hoods are available. Shorty's and long bibs are our most popular styles. Face openings include eyes only, full face and slit eye. American Safety Clothing assures quality and affordability that is unmatched in the market today!

NOL11FF

KV21FF